

Personal Narrative Review Instructions

Upon completion, please submit the final draft of your personal narrative in an email to: PNdraft@excelleducation.com

In the subject line please type PN Review/ Final Draft

Only your final draft will be reviewed and edited.

All edits will be done as follows:

1. Lines to be deleted/changed will be typed in ~~RED with a strike~~
~~through~~ the lines or words.
2. Suggested edits will be in Bold Green
3. Rationale will be in parenthesis in (Green Italics) following the edit suggestion
4. Larger areas of concern or areas where you are advised to reconsider a concept will be highlighted in Yellow with rationale as described in #3.
5. DO NOT re-submit a draft that has already been edited by EXCELL. This is simply because it is not likely that the reviewer will re-edit their own work. All reviewed drafts are final.
6. In the event that your final draft is in need of a major rewrite, you will be advised as such and it will not be reviewed. A general advisory comment will be provided. You will be given an opportunity, at no additional cost, to resubmit your revised final draft for review and edit.

Although we use all our experience and expertise to provide you with the best personal narrative review and edit suggestions, no one can guarantee results leading to a PA School Interview. Although graduates of the EXCELL Pre Physician Assistant Clerkship have enjoyed a 98% success rate, these students undertook the entire clerkship program. Past success does not guarantee future results.
